

Rustic Traditional Irish Music Weekend

East Clare | Sliabh Aughty Mountains | Overlooking Lough Derg | June 26th–28th

Experience an authentic Irish traditional music weekend in the peaceful countryside of East Clare, one of Ireland's most celebrated regions for traditional music. Set above the scenic waters of Lough Derg, this gathering offers an immersive cultural experience combining music, landscape, and community.

Each evening features traditional music sessions in a welcoming rustic barn setting, where musicians come together to share tunes in a relaxed, friendly atmosphere. A special guest session on Saturday night adds to the richness of the weekend.

Workshops & Musical Learning

Morning workshops are held on Saturday and Sunday, and are open to all instruments and levels:

- Saturday: Workshop with renowned Irish fiddle player Maeve Donnelly
- Sunday: Workshop with your host fiddle player Clíodhna Donnellan

Arriving from Abroad

International participants are very welcome to arrive early on Thursday, June 25th, allowing time to settle in and adjust. There is an option to book a private one-to-one class with Clíodhna Donnellan, offering a supportive space to:

- Learn how to start tunes confidently
- Gain confidence playing in group sessions
- Receive practical tips to enhance your overall experience

Shared Cultural Experience

This is a small group weekend where participants share meals, music, sessions, and time together, creating a strong sense of connection. On Saturday afternoon, weather permitting, we will take a boat trip to Inis Cealtra (Holy Island) – a site of great historical and spiritual significance – where we may play a tune together in this unique setting.

Optional activities during free time include:

- Swimming in Lough Derg
- Walking and enjoying the local countryside
- Visiting nearby cafés and villages
- Booking additional one-to-one music lessons

Accommodation & Practical Information

- Limited on-site accommodation, including:
 - One self-contained mini studio with private entrance
 - Two double rooms
- Local bed-and-breakfast options available nearby
- Campervans welcome
- One-day, non-residential options available

Whether you join for a single day or the full weekend, this event offers a welcoming introduction to Irish traditional music in its natural home, surrounded by local musicians, beautiful landscapes, and a relaxed, supportive atmosphere.
